1941

CHARITY HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING
AT NEW ORLEANS

AFFILIATED WITH LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

CAPS AND CAPES OF 1941

gives you

NURSES AS PATRIOTS

THEME

Today, every true American has his role to play on the great stage of international affairs. Each must take up his cue of service in the tragedy of world stress that is currently being enacted. As nurses, it is our duty to prepare ourselves for service to our country. With an intense love for the ideals of our nation and an eager desire to help our fellow citizens, we, the Nurses and Patriots of today, are ready to take our places as the curtain of the future rises upon us.

DEDICATION

*TO OUR BELOVED MARY E. GILLEN WHOSE KNOWLEDGE AND UNDER-
STANDING HAVE KEPT EVER BURNING
THE FIRES OF SERVICE IN THE HEARTS
OF ALL CHARITY STUDENTS—WE DEDI-CATE THIS ISSUE OF CAPS AND CAPES.*

MARY E. GILLEN

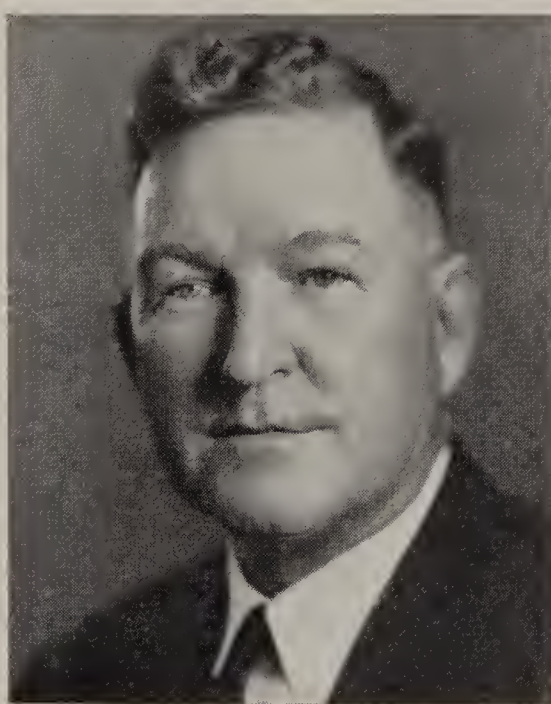

SISTER STANISLAUS

"We'd like to do the big things
And the splendid things for you,
To brush the gray from out your skies
And leave them ever blue.
We'd like to mean as much
Each minute of the day
As you have meant, dear friend of ours,
To us, along the way."

"THE RAVING"

(With due respect and profound apologies to Edgar Allen Poe)

The senior class of forty-one
 Since training days are nearly done,
 And three long years of battle won
 Approach the graduation door.
 Yes, now we look back and recall
 Strange things that happened to us all,
 With some things great and some things small
 And some worth telling o'er and o'er.
 But hail dim past! Why worry more
 What the future has in store,
 To enjoy, or to deplore?

Recall the times we've spent together
 Unmindful of the state of weather,
 With hearts as light as any feather
 'Though sometimes punctured to the core
 Because of some misdeed or other
 Committed by a little brother,
 So sweetly tucked in by his mother
 While on the pediatric floor.
 Yes, trays did crash upon the floor
 While angel faces seemed to snore,
 Those tots, though sick, had pep galore.

Then to obstetric wards we went
 And weeks with Mothers there we spent,
 'Till to another service sent
 Although we really wanted more.
 At first we were a wee bit quiv'ry
 But gained in knowledge more and more.
 In infant feeding, on the sly
 (The cause we'll never tell you why,)
 We drank sweet milk condensed, no lie,
 And added pounds, yes, more and more.

Those frequent conf'rences with Sister;
 Miss Gillen left, we surely missed her;
 Then volumes read we on famed Lister
 Gaining knowledge o'er and o'er.
 To Forty-eight! that's Isolation,
 While charting in the nurses' station

We faced mid-term examination.
 Oh! tell us truly, we explore
 How you our efforts can ignore,
 When we for mercy did implore
 We crave it ever more and more.

Our skills in surgical technique
 At first seemed desperately weak,
 Till arms and hands were well nigh streaked
 From scrubbing them, yet more and more.
 We have survived those tests and trials
 Which 'rose in the Delgado—Miles
 From which we left with sincere smiles
 With longing to return to more
 E'en though our feet were tiresome, sore,
 And polished nails were then no more
 Our hands scrubbed red and raw all o'er.

When on to Carville we did go
 Technique to learn and more to know,
 From Uncle Sam who is, you know,
 Protector at Lepr'sarium door.
 And so we left, the trip completing
 While on through Baton Rouge now eating,
 Then to La Place, the jute box beating,
 Throughout that day was fun galore
 For Seniors who were nigh footsore
 From dancing on a hardwood floor.
 But give us more, yes, more and more.

With graduation day so near
 We'll soon be leaving you all here,
 But these fond memories will cheer
 Yes, cheer our hearts for ever more!
 As we do bid our last farewell
 Our very hearts begin to swell;
 Our loyalty no words can tell.
 But through the years we'll love you more
 And our memories we'll store
 Deep in our hearts forevermore.

FLASH: S. S. Charity Missing At Sea

June 12,—New York, N. Y.

The majestic ship, S.S. Charity, left Frisco Harbor on the evening of June 4 for a pleasure cruise along the picturesque islands of the Pacific. On its passenger list are names of outstanding individuals, the majority of whom had recently attended a three-year course in Nursing Education at New Orleans. The last radio message received from the S.S. Charity located her at latitude 15° south by southwest—longitude 165° west by northwest. At that time a storm was anticipated from the southwest, and Captain M. J. Stuart reported that the Charity would endeavor to land at some likely port. Within thirty minutes, radio operators were unable to secure any further response.

The following represents the passenger list: Helen Worth, efficient office nurse to Dr. W. E. Cuttem; Frances Waters, popular private duty nurse among the wealthy of Florida; Martha Dunn, much loved supervisor on Colored Pediatrics at Charity Hospital of New Orleans; Clifford Reynolds, head nurse on Bar None Ranch in Southwest Texas; Sidonie Thevenet, Famous Powers' Model of 1941; Cathleen Hutcheson, post-graduate student in Obstetrics at New York General Hospital; Ollie Keating, institutional nurse in the Jackson Mississippi Orphanage; Anna Thibodeaux, successor of Zazu Pitts of movie fame; Dr. James C. Allen, pediatrician at the Mayo Clinic; Frances Pierce and Henrietta Silberstein, air stewardesses on the Transcontinental Air Lines; Flo and Ruby Barron, Public Health nurses among the islanders of Hawaii; Laurice Aguillard, faculty advisor in New York General Hospital; Yvonne Chugg, institutional nurse at Los Angeles General; Irene Brown, manager of an efficiency apartment for two; Barbara Jones, fever therapy technician at Charity Hospital; Margaret Murphy, Public Health nurse in New York City; Aline Lafond, Acting President of the National League of Nursing Education; Bessie Kleinpeter, wife and mother; Thelma DeFelice and Eddie Jo Knight, Acting President and Vice-President, respectively, of the National Club of Single Young Women; Elvira Anderson, instructor in Nursing Arts in the Hartford Connecticut Memorial Hospital; Rosalou Freeland de Galatoiré, wife of New Orleans' famous Roosevelt Hotel Chef; Ophelia Acosta, millionairess director of the El Paso Texas Nursing School; Della Hightower, missionary nurse to China; Dorothy Breaux, director of a private home for elderly women in New Orleans; Floyd Walton, assistant in dietetics, Lafayette Charity Hospital; Sue Ryland, well-known actress of the Broadway stage; Anna Maude McElveen and Ossie Mosely, hostesses at the Louisiana State Orphanage; Helen Nelson, successful business woman, Chicago, Illinois; Ada Wester, New Orleans' artist of the famous comic strip, "The Student Nurse"; Marcella Jacobs and Hilda Thompson, stewardesses on the Trans-Pacific Steamship Lines; Irma Schwartz, successor of Mary Hamra in the field of Orthopedics; Mildred Bertrand, Meredith Baker, and Margaret Kemp, The Three "M's" of the Kentucky Nurses on Horseback; Lillian Lockhart, supervisor of the Louisiana State Mental Hospital at Pineville, Louisiana; Cecilia Kelly Daniel, wife of General Daniel of Washington, D.C.;

June Herrington, director of nurses at Lady of the Lake Hospital in Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Eunice Clapp, orthopedic nurse at the Huey P. Long Charity Hospital in Louisiana; Ruth Johnson, in charge of nurses' infirmary of Charity Hospital at New Orleans; Amelia Garcia and Rosalie Placencia, famous dancers in Mexico City; Mary Gunn, secretary of the National Red Cross; Marie Louise Jardell, private duty nurse in Vinton, Louisiana; Pearl Taylor, successor to Bing Crosby over WSMB; Virginia Warren, Public Health supervisor in Tampa, Florida; Alvis Covington Dupont and Mary Meighan Rockefeller, model housewives along the Atlantic seaboard; Lucille Champagne, the Louisiana State poet; Minnie Ledoux, citizen of Eunice, Louisiana; Rosemary Weishaupt and Nova Madere, workers on the Indian reservation of Oklahoma; Margaret Bellue, dietitian at the White House; Frankie William, director of nurses in the Miles Operating Room at Charity Hospital; Mary Ann Fletcher, assistant to Martina Lynch in clinic work; Zepher Rabalais, supervisor of a large contagious unit in northern Louisiana; Alverne Walker, obstetrical nurse recently appointed to the staff of Bellevue Hospital; Gertrude Rothgery, instructor in Hygiene at the University of Southern Mississippi; Elbie Robin, director of the Health Clinic at Arnaudville, Louisiana; Noemie Richard, instructor in Nursing Arts at a select hospital for women and children; Rose Salvaggio, general duty nurse at the Hospital for Disabled Veterans in Biloxi, Mississippi; Ursula Mumme, office nurse for one of the leading Obstetricians of New Orleans; and Carolyn Lewis, nursing advisor in the United States Defense Program.

All efforts are being made to locate the missing vessel. Listen closely for later developments. It is strongly suspected that Captain Stuart has moored the ship into the harbor of an unknown tropical isle. One of the last persons to see the Captain before the ship sailed stated that the Captain's parting words were, "I'd give most anything for an honest-to-goodness vacation". It is earnestly hoped that the passengers are safe somewhere in the Pacific, lounging on a silver beach 'neath a tropical moon and listening to the lullaby of the rustling palms.

SIGMA ALPHA CHI

By conscientious study, meritorious work, and unswerving loyalty, membership in Sigma Alpha Chi is attained. This honorary organization provides an incentive for self improvement and a reward for those who deserve membership. Once membership is attained, it stimulates the student to continue to do good work.

Although Sigma Alpha Chi is a comparatively young organization, it has won a position of esteem in the eyes of the faculty, alumnae, and students.

May Sigma Alpha Chi thrive and expand as long as Scholarship, Loyalty, and Achievement hold high places in our noble profession.

ATHLETIC CLUB

The Athletic Club this year has been more active than ever. A system of points by which letters were awarded was introduced. Basketball, tennis, volley-ball, hikes, and swimming are a few of the sports whereby points were gained. The annual club picnic took place at Barataria this year.

OFFICERS: President, Alvis Covington; Vice-President, Aline Lafond; Secretary, Frances Pierce; Treasurer, Mary Louise Breaux; Club Director, Yvonne LeDew.

CHEERLEADERS: Nancy Catham, Mary Boston, Audrey Bertrand, and Mignon DeMoss.

MEMBERS: Christine Barraza, Audrey Bertrand, Mary Boston, Mary Louise Breaux, Muriel Casso, Regina Ching, Blanche Clause, Nancy Cotham, Esther Cornwell, Alvis Covington, Adella Dantin, Mignon DeMoss, Lelias Domingue, Doris Estelle, Amelia Garcia, Jeannette Gifford, Mary Gunn, Lelia Hebert, Della Hightower, Doris Hilton, Roberta Hyland, Mary Louise Jardell, Ollie Keating, Cecilia Kelly, Geraldine Lacour, Aline Lafond, Nell Laurent, Geraldine Lawrence, Alma McCollister, Martha Maynard, Carolyn Newman, Jerry Payton, Frances Pierce, Rosalie Placencia, Sally Pride, Mary L. Regus, Louise Rodrigue, Mildred Rushing, Marie L. Ryan, Therese Thibodeaux, and Rosemary Weisaupt.

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

The purpose of this newly organized club is to give its members a better understanding of the social and political world of today. Under the able guidance of Miss Lorraine Murphy, Librarian, this small group has done much towards giving its members a more vivid picture of the world in which we live.

MEMBERS: Elvira Anderson, Margaret Bellue, Roma Claus, Marise Kelly, Helen Nelson, Jane Perkins, Frances Rae, Pearl Taylor, and Beatriz Posada; Club Director, Lorraine Murphy.

GLEE CLUB

Whenever the name of this club is mentioned, a mental picture immediately comes before one—a vision of girls in full uniform, candles in hand as, with their soft caroling through the halls of Charity, they radiate joy at Christmas time. This is the one function that all look forward to when the feast of the Babe of Peace slips around.

OFFICERS: President, Adine Cassidey; Vice-President, Mary E. Foster; Secretary-Treasurer, Sylvia Jacoby; Club Director, Anne Moses.

LITERARY AND DRAMATIC CLUB

The outstanding activity of the Literary and Dramatic Club was the presentation of a play for Sister Stanislaus' feast day. As always, the program was splendidly dramatized and enthusiastically received by our esteemed Sister and her host of friends.

OFFICERS: President, Sue Ryland; Secretary-Treasurer, Ada Wester; Rush Chairman, Catherine Eerson; Club Director, Mary Hamra.

MEMBERS: Rose Emma Andrus, Alice Boogaerts, Sidonia Burns, Catherine Efferson, Alice Famularo, Elizabeth Forester, Martha Fraley, Angie Giovenco, Cathleen Hutcheson, Sue Kemp, Minnie Ledoux, Adele Levy, Nell McGregor, Maryrose Machauer, Ossie Mosely, Monette Prows, Kathleen Russell, Sue Ryland, Isabel Sanchez, Hilda Thompson, Juanita Walker, and Ada Wester.

SOCIAL CLUB

The Social Club year has been punctuated with many delightful outings and activities, among these, "date-nights", hayrides, and the feature of the year—the Gulf Coast trip.

Dear Diary—

SEPTEMBER 17

Convocation Exercises tonight and with them, the formal opening of school! What a thrill it is to be honest-to-goodness seniors at last!

OCTOBER 30

Dead tired after the Fall Fiesta, but the end-results are truly the reward of effort. We'll be able to do so many things now, because we have the nucleus of a school fund. I hope this is the first of a long line of fiestas at Charity. Thanks to every supervisor, staff nurse, and student for making our first fiesta so successful.

DECEMBER 19

What a grand time we had at our Christmas Party tonight! The pre-clinicals took us back to our younger days by showing real, live dolls from Santa's workshop. The thrill of the evening was to hear "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town" over the new radio-victrola which the Sisters gave us.

JANUARY 16

At last, that longed-for trip to Carville! How privileged we were to be able to visit the National Leprosarium, which is situated some 50 miles from the Crescent City. Indeed, the U. S. Marine Hospital at Carville is a miniature world; within which live those patients who seek physical care, spiritual comfort, and emotional protection in the bearing of their affliction.

En route home we went through the Capitol, and saw other points of interest in Baton Rouge. Once back at Charity, we congregated at the main gate of our home and sang our theme song. Our fellow-students from within the building joined us in the singing of Alma Mater. January 16! Oh, what a memorable day!

MARCH 23

Seniors, though I am one of your group, I am proud of you. Surely the Seniors from the other Schools of Nursing in the city were cordially received during the Tea which you prepared in their honor.

APRIL 9

Someone has said, "All things come to him who waits"—Mid-terms make us wonder! Dare we ever wait for success with as much certainty as for exams!

MAY 2

I wonder if we were as curious three years ago as were our High School Senior guests of today and yesterday. Certainly our invitation extended to the graduating classes of the various High Schools of New Orleans was well used, and we trust that the seeds of enthusiasm may grow into promising applications to our professional field.

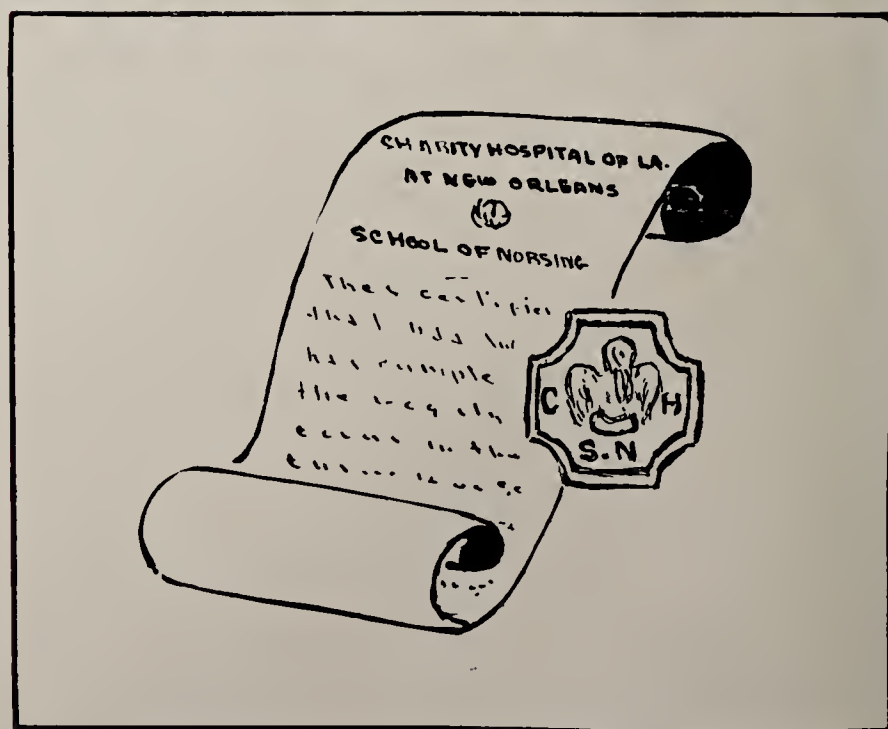

MAY 9—2:30 A. M.

Billowy summer dresses, sweet music, dates in spic and span white linen—and—a lovely time—that was our student dance. To bed now with such wonderful dreams——!

THE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly: to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1941 of the Charity Hospital School of Nursing, being of sound mind and testamentary capacity, do hereby make, publish, and declare, this to be our last will and testament, herein disposing of all the real, personal, and mixed property which we own and have the right to dispose of:

ITEM I. We unconditionally give and bequeath our undying gratitude to Sisters Stanislaus, Mathilde, Henrietta, and Sylvia, and the faculty, who have imparted their knowledge to us and have helped us to reach the point where we now stand.

ITEM II. To the Junior Class we will our place as seniors, together with all its trials, hardships, happiness, and pleasures.

ITEM III. To the Pre-clinicals, who have so recently been capped, we will the vast knowledge and experience which we, the graduating class, possess.

ITEM IV. Jimmie Allen wills to Martha Milligan her strength and capabilities as president of the Student Council.

Elvira Anderson desires to leave her northern accent to Agnes Edge, and Barbara Jones, her Arkansas drawl to Betty Bassett.

Sue Kemp, Bessie Kleinpeter, Minnie Ledoux, and Zepher Rabalais will their lovely complexion to Nancy Cotham.

To the Opelousas girls, Aline Lafond leaves the responsibility of playing baseball in bare-feet.

Cecilia Kelly and Noemie Richard find it almost impossible to leave anything because the most important factors in their lives are Dan and Bill, and could they will them?

Della Hightower leaves to Jerry Payton her slight stature.

Eunice Clapp wills her distinguishing poise and grace to Jane Miller.

Alvis Covington and Rosemary Weishaupt appoint Nell Laurent and Geraldine Lacour to carry on as the famous athletes of the school.

Ossie Mosley wills her medical student to Vivian Dearing when she goes home to be with Huston.

Frankie Williams, Mildred Bertrand, and Margaret Murphy will their ability to wear clothes attractively to Marise Kelly.

Tene Warren and Ursula Mumme appoint Mary Louise Regus and Olga Rossie as supervisors of the knitting and crocheting circle.

Marie Louise Jardell and Florene Barron will Peggy Shaw and Charlcie Whiddon their technique in securing seats in a crowded theatre.

Lillian Lockhart desires that Jeanette Gifford keep up the red-head's fame.

To Mary Boston, Ollie Keating wills her heart palpitations when Dr. Marino appears on the scene.

Ophelia Acosta and Frances Waters would like to leave their renowned intelligence to Wilma Millard and Catherine Efferson.

To Mildred Rushing, Irma Schwartz wills her ability to keep her love affair a secret.

To anyone who may be interested, Anna Thibodeaux wills her hobby of collecting souvenirs from every place she goes.

Mary Gunn, Gertrude Rothgery, Anna M. McElveen, Nova Madere, and Irene Brown will their quiet dispositions to Martha Milligan.

June Herrington and Mary Meighan will their army boy friends to Regina Ching.

To Lillian Smith and Margaret Moore, Helen Nelson and Floyd Walton will their courage to carry on.

Mary Fletcher, Hilda Thompson, and Nene Thevenet will their lovely hair to Sylvia Jacoby and Adine Cassidey.

Alverne Walker appoints Esther Casey to replace her as pianist of our school.

To Geraldine Lawrence, Martha Dunn wills her long curls that Gordon admires so much.

Helen Worth and Dorothy Breaux leave their lovely smiles in the hearts of their fellow-students.

Ada Wester and Sue Ryland leave the responsibility of keeping "Liz" (the skeleton) dressed in season and style to Faye Reeves and Jane Wright.

To Muriel Casso, Meredith Baker wills her idea of setting an alarm clock to ring in the middle of a class.

To Alice Famularo, Frances Pierce desires to leave her dancing ability.

Garcia and Placencia leave the task of preserving their Spanish accent to Barraza and Posada.

To Elizabeth Forester, Yvonne Chugg wills all her sophistication.

Rosalou Freeland wills her lovely hands to Angie Giovenco and Margaret Bellue wills her sunny disposition to Addlie Guillory.

Laurice Aguillard wills to Carolyn Newman her crooner, on one condition, that he won't sing "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

Lucille Champagne desires that Elaine Riehlman assume her place as school poet.

Pearl Taylor wills her wit to Audrae Quintini and Clifford Reynolds wills her soldier boy to Elizabeth Knight.

To Miriam Lowery, Eddie Jo Knight wills her place as orchestra leader of the "4th floor Pole cats".

Thelma DeFelice and Marcella Jacobs will their popularity to Doris McDonald.

Ruby Barron and Carolyn Lewis will to Ruth Zuber their efficiency.

Cathleen Hutcheson wills her salesmanship ability to Marie L. Pescoller.

Henrietta Silberstein desires to leave to Alice Boogaerts her habit of asking "why" in class.

Ruby and Flo Barron leave their inseparability to Marie Blankenship and Jane Perkins.

In willingness whereof we have on this sixteenth day of June voluntarily subscribed our hand hereunto.

The Senior Class of 1941.

THE END OF A NURSE'S DAY

Seven o'clock! And the nurse's work
 Was done for another day!
 She heaved a sort of tired sigh
 And put the charts away.

Then sat for a moment and bowed her head
 Over the little white desk—
 "I wonder," said she to herself, "after all,
 Am I really doing my best?"

"Perhaps I could have begun the day
 With a brighter, cheerier smile,
 And answered the lights with—'Right away'
 Instead of 'After a while.'"

"And I might have listened with sweeter grace
 To the story of Six's woes;
 She may be suffering more, perhaps,
 More than anyone knows."

"And I might have refrained from the half-way frown,
 Although I was busy then,
 When the frail little girl, with sad blue eyes,
 Kept flashing again and again."

"And I might have spoken a kindlier word,
 To the heart of that restless boy,
 And stopped a moment to help him find
 The missing part of his toy."

"Or perhaps the patient in Eighteen A,
 Just needed a gentler touch;
 There are a lot of things I might have done
 And it wouldn't have taken much."

She sighed again and brushed a tear,
 Then whispered,—praying low,
 "My God, how can You accept this day,
 When it has been lacking so?"

And God looked down—He heard the sigh,
 He saw that shining tear;
 Then sent His Angel Messenger
 To whisper in her ear, . . .

"You could have done better today,
 But, oh! the Omnipotent One,
 Seeing your faults, does not forget,
 The beautiful things you have done."

"He knows, little nurse, that you love your work
 In this house of pain and sorrow,
 So gladly forgives the lack of today,
 For you will do better tomorrow."

The nurse looked up with a grateful smile,
 "Tomorrow I'll make it right";
 Then added a note in the order book,
 "Be good to them tonight."
